

OCTOBER 2020

INVITATION AFTERNOON TEA

SOCIAL IMPACT PROPERTY FUNDS COMING OF AGE

You are invited to join leading social impact investment company, Resonance, in association with Pension for Purpose, for a virtual afternoon tea on Wednesday 4 November.

At Resonance, we create and manage social impact investment funds which deliver a financial return and targeted social impact.

In our afternoon tea we will explain how our impact approach, helping the homeless, has evolved to embrace a wider social need. We will explore why this investment strategy has performed well during the COVID-19 pandemic and the emerging opportunity this presents for pension funds.

The afternoon tea will start at 14:30 and will also include commentary from Karen Shackleton, from Pensions for Purpose.

Please RSVP as places are limited.

We hope you can join us for what we expect will be an educational and interactive discussion.
